

ChildD Frequently Asked Questions

Before the celebration . . .

How much does ChildD cost?

There is no cost to participate in ChildD.

How many people can I invite?

We will reserve a table with 8 chairs for you and your family. If additional seating is needed please let us know.

What do I need to do between now and the day of the celebration?

Invite your friends and family. A sample invitation will be emailed to you after you register for the ChildD event. You will also need to watch two short videos in preparation for the event. These videos contain homework challenges to be shared on celebration day. You will be emailed a link to these videos as well.

What do I need to bring with me?

Besides your friends, family, and child (don't forget them at home!), please bring a printed copy of the "homework"—the letter to your child. If you don't mind sharing its contents with your guests, we suggest bringing a copy for everyone.

The day of the celebration . . .

What time should we arrive?

Immediately following the 10:30am service. At the Derby Campus the event is held in the FUZION Auditorium. At the Bessemer Campus the event is held in the TWC Kids Auditorium.

What should we wear?

Whatever you and your little one will feel most comfortable in! Some people dress casually in jeans, while others wear more formal attire.

Is this an infant baptism?

No. We believe that a child must be old enough to understand what it means to put their faith in Jesus Christ before they can be baptized. This event is an opportunity for you as parents to publically declare that you want to raise your child to develop their own relationship with Jesus Christ.

I can barely get my child to sit still long enough to get them dressed. How will they survive the entire celebration day event?

Your child will make noise during the celebration day event. But that's okay, because so will everyone else's!

Will there be a photographer?

We will have a photography vignette set up for family photos. Please bring your own camera, and we will furnish a staff member or volunteer to take your picture.

What can I expect on the day of the celebration?

The event should last no more than 45 minutes. The production will include a welcome, a few songs, and a short message. During this time, you will have an opportunity to share your homework. You will also be led in a prayer of dedication before being dismissed.
